

---

Decision: Employee Benefits Investigation Update

Meeting Date: February 25, 2016

The Board:

1. Received a confidential verbal update related to the employee benefits investigation.
2. Authorized that the information provided in the confidential verbal update is to remain confidential in its entirety as it contains information or communication that deals with personal matters about identifiable individuals and also contains information that is subject to solicitor-client privilege.